School Room Needed

Editor
Torrance Press:
Twenty-five little pre-school members of the Torrance Cooperative Nursery school which operates under the Adult Education Department, will soon be out of school unless we can find a new place to hold classes. Due to extreme remodeling at the church where we now go to school, we soon will have no place to play and learn. Can anyone help us? Mrs. Herbert Bramson, 22413 Charlotte, Torrance, is the chairman of the committee to find a new school for us. Please call her at FR. 5-5818 if you know of any place that might be suitable. The area must contain 35 sq. ft. per child indoors and 75 sq. ft. per child outdoors. We have 25 children in all. If necessary, we will do our own fencing. We will rent or lease as desired.

Councilman Speaks About Airport Issue

Editor,
Torrance Press
On Sunday, November 22, in a rival newspaper, an editorial appeared concerning a "touch-and-go" strip at the Torrance Municipal Airport.

This editorial appeared after complete silence in the Thursday issue on this same problem. However, on the preceding Thursday your paper reported the story so the people of Torrance would have full information. I am writing to you with an answer to that editorial in the hopes of having this letter published so that a full report will reach the people. The editorial mentions that if everyone would follow Civil Air regulations there would be adequate air traffic control. Mostly, Civil Air regulations are left to the conscience of the pilot and especially at our airport where the management feels they have no police powers. The editorial mentions also that the "touch-and-go" strip is within financial reach of the city, and since it is recommended by the CAA and the management, that the City Council acted with political bias in refusing to build the "touch-and-go" strip. However, as is sometimes the case, editorials are written without deep thought to have it appear as though public servants acted without deep thought in most instances. I wish to point out that there has been a great deal of confusion in flying the traffic pattern at Torrance Airport and sometime it is quite hazardous. It is my feeling and the feeling of many others who have studied this situation that by adding the "touch-and-go" strip without more adequate control, and having another circle of planes flying within the present traffic pattern would be inviting accidents and near-misses untold. I believe the City Council voted as they did in refusing this "touch-and-go" strip only because they were concerned with the safety of the citizens living in proximity to the airport and the human lives and property of those flying the airplanes at Torrance Airport. I hope you will print this letter so that all concerned may view both sides of this problem.

Sincerely yours,
(s) Robert B. Jahn
Councilman.

Pontrelli Still Plays It Smooth

Pete Pontrelli, owner of the Figueroa ballroom at Figueroa and Washington in Los Angeles has been leading an orchestra for 35 years. In all this time he has never moved out of Los Angeles to play professionally. In his earlier days he was nicknamed "Pep" when the majority of his audiences were college couples. Pontrelli's band was one of the most popular ever heard at the Aragon ballroom in Ocean Park. Pete attributes his lasting popularity to a smooth rhythmic style — avoiding the extremes and staying with fox trots, waltzes and Latin dances. Pete plays the saxophone and accordion every week-end in the front of his big band.
